KOUROPATKIN'S "LURE" IN WORKING ORDER.

He Continues to Draw the Japs Farther Away from Their Base.

Stakelberg Committed a Grave Error, but His Cut-off Forces Escape—He May be Court-martialed—Japanese Fighting for Days Without Food or Water. Russians Taken from Behind.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 4, 7:40 p. m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Gen. Stakelberg's First Siberian Army Corps, which was reported yesterday by Gen. Kourapatkin as having been cut off to the westward of Liao Yang, has been safely extricated.

Gen. Kourapatkin telegraphed at 7 o'clock Saturday evening that the greater portion of his army was then south of Yentai, about ten miles northeast of Liao Yang, and that the other portion of it was crossing the Taitse River and taking up a position on the right bank. This message was received by the Emperor early Sunday morning, threw a more hopeful light on the position of the Russian army, and the authorities gave sighs of relief.

There is no attempt, however, to conceal the gravity of the situation, in view of the absence of news regarding what is happening today. It is not clear from the latest telegrams whether the Russians are continuing their retreat, or if they have been compelled to face their foe.

KOUROPATKIN FEELS BETTER.

The gloomy report telegraphed by the Russian Commander-in-Chief in the early stages of the fight of Saturday last and his bitter reproaches against Gen. Stakelberg are attributed to his chagrin over the failure of his offensive plans.

Gen. Kourapatkin now telegraphs that his only serious losses are confined to Maj. Gen. Orloff's detachment, which was guarding the left flank at Yentai. This detachment consisted of mixed European detachments, and was suddenly attacked by Japanese infantry and artillery concealed in the tall Chinese corn and grass. The Russians seem to have lost their heads, and to have retreated precipitately. The Japanese inflicted great slaughter, one of Gen. Orloff's regiments losing 1500 men.

COURT-MARTIAL FOR STAKELBERG.

No details are given of the escape of Gen. Stakelberg's corps from the clutches of the enemy, but it is believed that it owes its safety to the neglect or the inability of the Japanese to follow up their advantage. Gen. Stakelberg was allowed to cross the river and come up with the main army in time to enable the shattered remnants of Maj. Gen. Orloff's detachment to retreat. This exploit is likely to condone Gen. Stakelberg's disobedience, but unless the Emperor forgives him, he will have to appear before a court-martial and probably will lose his command.

The War Office is able to make the reassuring statement that the Russian retreat from Liao Yang did not involve the loss of guns, and it is also declared that the abandoned stores at Liao Yang were set on fire before the Russians crossed the Taitse River.

KOUROPATKIN AT TIEHLING.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 4.—It is reported here this evening that Gen. Kourapatkin has arrived at Tiehling.

[Tiehling is twelve miles north of Yentai, on the railroad, and eighteen miles south of Mukden. Yentai is twelve miles north-east of Liao Yang.—Associated Press.]

TAKEN FROM BEHIND.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 4.—Gen. Kourapatkin, in a report dated Saturday, September 4, 7 p. m., says that the greater part of his army, including Gen. Stakelberg's force, which succeeded in rejoining the main force, is now south of the Yentai mines, about ten miles from Liao Yang.

The troops which were left at Liao Yang and the surrounding fortifications to cover the retreat crossed the Taitse River Saturday and occupied the right bank of the river.

The report says that after the decisive engagement between the armies of Gen. Kourapatkin and Kuroki large numbers of Japanese, perfectly concealed in the Chinese corn and grass, stealthily crept up on the retreating Russians and inflicted heavy losses. These same tactics had previously been adopted with terrible results. Maj. Gen. Orloff's mixed detachment was assailed in the midst of the grass with a completely unexpected fire. A panic ensued, and one regiment alone lost some 1500 men, half its total strength.

KOUROPATKIN'S REPORT.

Following is the full text of the report:

"Today, September 3, the greater part of the Russian army, including the First Siberian Army Corps, is occupying positions south of branch railway from Yentai station to the Yentai mines. 'The Japanese, although they were in the immediate vicinity of our troops today, confined themselves principally to sniping from the Chinese cornfields.

"Our troops, which were posted at the Liao Yang, are crossing to the right bank of the Taitse River.

"The area of operations is almost entirely covered by growing Chinese corn, which greatly impedes the movements of the troops. 'The retreat of Maj. Gen. Orloff's detachment yesterday (Friday) was largely due to the fire with which the force was assailed among the millet fields.

"Gen. Orloff's loss was considerable, one regiment alone losing 1500."

FIGHTING WITHOUT FOOD.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

TOKIO, Sept. 4, 9 p. m.—Beyond Field Marshal Oyama's dispatches reporting the occupation of Liao Yang and the commencement of Gen. Kuroki's turning movement against the Russian left, nothing further concerning the battle of Liao Yang has reached Tokyo today. Neither the number of Russians who succeeded in escaping northward nor the number encompassed by Gen. Kuroki's turning movement is known here. The severity of the Russian defeat hinges largely on Kuroki's movement. If successful, the number of Russian prisoners will be large. The Japanese reports received indicate that the soldiers of both armies went to the limit of human endurance, and suffered terribly. It was impossible constantly to supply them with food and water, and the men have fought for days past starving and parched with thirst.

Although full details are lacking, the duration of the fighting, the numbers engaged and the losses so far reported indicate that Liao Yang will prove to be one of the greatest battles of history. The dispatch received from Field Marshal Oyama announcing the fall of Liao Yang had the effect of cheering up all the subjects of the Mikado. Throughout the rejoicings here following the earlier successes of Japanese arms at Liao Yang, the more thoughtful people feared the exposure to which the right wing of Gen. Kuroki's army was subjected, and it was held possible that the strength of the Liao Yang fortifications would permit the withdrawal of the bulk of the Russian forces there. Even now there is doubt concerning the number of Russians who have escaped, but there is no doubt about the character of the victory at Liao Yang.

TOKIO REJOICING.
Tokio is brilliantly illuminated to-night, and joyful crowds are parading the streets cheering the exploits of Field Marshal Oyama and Gen. Oku, Kuroki and Nodzu.

THAT "DARK BROWN TASTE" AGAIN.

NEWS LIES HEAVY ON ST. PETERSBURG'S STOMACH.

Retreat from and Destruction of Stores at Liao Yang After a Desperate Battle Severely Tried Public Confidence in Kourapatkin—Mukden May be the Turning Point.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5, 2:30 a. m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] There is bitter disappointment tonight, probably the keenest of the whole land campaign, over the situation at the front. Up to Liao Yang, the retreating from and the abandonment of positions had been expected, and that much the public and the officials thought they knew of Gen. Kourapatkin's plan of campaign. Had Liao Yang been abandoned without a fight, the public at least would have looked forward patiently to a decisive stand at Mukden, but after a desperate battle, with victory for the instant apparently in sight, to find Liao Yang abandoned, its immense stores captured or destroyed, and the retreat continued under most adverse conditions, severely tries public confidence in the commander-in-chief.

At this hour, even the authorities know little more than what has already been given to the public. There is still much doubt as to whether Kourapatkin is continuing his retreat, or whether, indeed, he has been able to do so, but the public so far is not aware of Gen. Stakelberg's narrow escape from being cut off.

The situation as it is known to date is that the Russian army is south of the branch railway connecting Yentai station, two miles northeast of Liao Yang, with the Yentai mines, where fierce fighting has been in progress. Active fighting seems to have been suspended for the moment, the armies probably resting after their terrific and continuous exertions of the past ten days, the longest single battle in history, and it will depend upon their respective recuperative powers as to which will be first able to resume activity.

The country is ill-suited to military operations. It is flatter and more open than the region south of Liao Yang, but is covered at this season with dense fields of Chinese corn, growing higher than a man on horseback. It is more suited to surprise tactics and to offensive operations than to an orderly retreat.

MUKDEN A STRONG POINT.
One feature of the situation, however, has apparently been overlooked by the local critics in their recent eagerness to chronicle a decisive engagement, namely that Kourapatkin is still in command of the railway and apparently has saved a majority of the rolling stock. This is chiefly in requisition at present for transportation of the wounded, but Mukden, with strong defenses, is less than thirty miles north of Yentai. What force Kourapatkin is holding in reserve there even the authorities do not exactly know, but it is believed that it must be considerable, while the European reinforcements, which have been rushed east for weeks past, are pouring in there daily.

The Japanese army is confessedly exhausted, and is getting further from its base of supplies. If it reaches Mukden without dealing Kourapatkin a crushing blow—and Field Marshal Oyama seems to be not yet able to en-

Silver Party Leader for Roosevelt.

Tillotson Writes a Trenchant Letter to Chairman Babcock Giving Reasons.

Democrats Admit Soundness of Republican Doctrine by Their Attitude.

They Compliment President's Virility by Nominating a Negative Candidate.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chairman Babcock of the Republican Congressional Committee has received the following letter from D. C. Tillotson, Topeka, Kan., formerly chairman of the national Republican silver party:

TOPEKA (Kan.) Aug. 22.

To John W. Babcock, chairman Republican Congressional Committee—Dear Sir: In 1900, a large body of voters who had always been loyal Republicans supported the nominee of the Democratic party for conviction's sake. While many, doubting the good faith of the Democratic party, returned to their party allegiance, a greater number, believing the Republican party was not recognizing economic and industrial problems confronting the people, continued to support the Democratic candidate. These, as the silver Republican party, did me the honor, in 1900, of making me chairman of their national committee. The present conditions make any further attempt to maintain the silver party organization a mere farce, whatever be one's academic theory of money.

DEMOCRATIC ADMISIONS.

With changed conditions come changed political relations. I speak only for myself, but it appears to me that the Democratic party has forfeited its claim upon all voters, except such as vote the ticket from tradition. Indeed, the only Democrat, who, in a generation, has stood for an idea, is constrained to admit that the candidate of his party is the beneficiary of a fraud practiced upon the convention which nominated him.

The Democratic party, through its attitude and the attitude of its candidates, admits that the Republican party is right on the money question.

It admits that the Republican party has perfected the legislation needed for controlling trusts and monopolies, a perfection that the Republican party itself has never claimed.

It admits, if successful, nothing is the way of tariff legislation can be effected, except such as may be approved by the Republican party, yet it seeks to make tariff-tinkering an issue.

It condemns the acquisition of the right to build the Panama Canal, but says "ratify the act by keeping the goods."

It sympathizes with the Filipinos, but fails to recognize that the acquisition of these islands was ratified by the people in 1900, after full discussion, and that now it is not an academic but a practical question the government must manage.

It declares for constitutional government, but signally fails to show where constitutional government has been subverted or to point out a remedy in the case.

It is opposed to polygamy, but that is no more an issue than free silver.

It presents us with a candidate whose political virtues are of a negative sort, as those of Buchanan, Pierce and Fillmore, and from all we can learn he would give just about their kind of administration.

He claims the body politic is sick and as a remedy proposes four years of paralysis. If this attitude is in good faith, it would appear that there is no good reason for supporting the party or its candidate; if in bad faith, then there is every reason for not supporting it.

ROOSEVELT COMPLIMENTED.

Those who believe that economic and industrial problems affecting the people should receive more consideration have no reason to look to the Democratic party at this time. With no definite programme to advocate and no settled policy of government to assert, the opposition is devoting its energies to an attack upon President Roosevelt, and the motive of this attack is a high compliment to him. His opponents are compelled to admit he is a man of virility, of high moral purpose in both civil and official life, and one that does not evade official responsibility in consistently advocating publicity in all business affecting public service. He would place before the people data which will enable them to act intelligently in matters affecting the general welfare.

GEN. WARNER SIZES IT UP.

Democrats Will Vote for the President Because They Like the Platform.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. A. J. Warner of Marietta, O., former head of the silver party, now one of Ohio's best-known Democrats, was in Pittsburgh today on his way East, and said of the political situation: "The Republicans think more of their platform this year than they do of Roosevelt, and on the other hand, the Democrats like Parker better than they do their platform, so there will be many Democratic votes the Republican ticket this fall.

"This, coupled with the fact that Parker has shown that he is not well versed on the money question, through his telegram to the nominating convention, practically insures the reelection of President Roosevelt this fall."

great coal strike, he recognized that there are practical industrial questions that demand the attention of the government, and that the hayoner is not a necessary element in settling labor disputes.

In pushing the Northern Securities case to a successful issue, he faced one of the most serious economic problems and demonstrated that in this country constitution and law are King.

While his fearless prosecution of official delinquents has earned the support of good citizens everywhere, while there are many honest and upright citizens among his opponents, yet the fact remains that the President's vigorous and aggressive execution of his office has led the manipulators of predatory wealth, the professional agitators and the political "grafter" to make common cause against him. These are thoroughly convinced that the President is not safe, but legitimate and vested rights have no cause of complaint.

The voter has to choose between one or the other candidates of the dominant parties, or throw his vote away, as a mere protest, by voting for a third-party candidate. It appears to me that the President is entitled to a vote of confidence, and above all party considerations, the election of President Roosevelt is required as a vindication of moral courage and official integrity in the government of men—a vindication not of the candidate, but of the American people.

The Republican party has courageously met its responsibilities in this campaign, and that it may win the success it has, thereby earned is my desire, and I shall do what I can to contribute thereto.

(Signed) D. C. TILLOTSON.

PROTEST AGAINST PARKER.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

JAMESTOWN (N. Y.) Sept. 4.—

(Exclusive Dispatch.) Ernest Caw-

er, a former member of the Democratic County Committee of Champlain, who has resigned to support the Roosevelt ticket, is now busily engaged in organizing a Democratic club, and already has assurances of membership of over two hundred.

He has addressed a circular letter to his Democratic colleagues, in which he urges the necessity of organization, and concludes that Bryan may prefer to vote for Roosevelt, Watson, or one of the other candidates,

"as a means of rescuing Parker's nomination, rebuking his spiritless platform, and thus record such a large protesting Democratic vote that he will be given to the demands of the people four years hence.

Assurances have been received from some of the school districts of Champlain county that not a single Parker Democrat can be found within their boundaries. It is freely predicted that a Republican plurality of over 10,000 will be given in Champlain county.

BANKER BENTON VENTS WRATH.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

MACON (Ga.) Sept. 4.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Thomas E. Watson, the Populist nominee for President, will be the defendant in a suit for blackmail which L. O. Benton, president of a chain of banks and one of the most prominent business men in the State, says he will bring against the candidiate in connection with a suit charging breach of promise brought against

Benton by Miss Kate Roebuck. It is alleged the suit cost Benton over $7000

before Miss Roebuck would accept a compromise and Benton charged that

Watson with being the chief spirit in presiding the case against him.

Benton states that Watson denies complicity in the proceedings in which the woman secured the money in settlement of her suit against him. It is stated, however, that the name of Gross and Watson and Thomas E. Watson were signed to communications which were received by L. O. Benton from the attorneys representing the woman.

"I am going to swear out a warrant

FIRE UNDER HER CORPSE.

Body of Mrs. McKicker Arrives at Chicago.

Dr. Zeigler's Checks Bathed With Unmanly Tears.

Stepson of Dead Woman is Denied the Remains.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) With a look of abject terror on his face, trembling like a leaf, tears rolling down his cheeks and looking furtively about him, Dr. C. H. E.

Zeigler arrived in Chicago this evening in charge of the body of Mrs. J. H.

McKicker.

Just as he went to the baggage car to claim the body, a mass of flames burst from under the car. A hot box had set it afire. A number of the employees rushed forward with buckets of water to extinguish the flames. When he saw the men running in his direction, Zeigler collapsed. He was assured by James H. Owen that everything was all right, and then turned over his receipts for the body to Col. Strong, the public administrator.

It was one of the most dramatic scenes ever witnessed at the depot.

James McKicker, the stepson of the dead woman, was there with his wife and two children. In order to take possession of the body. He was accompanied by his attorney, L. D. Condee.

Col. Strong, the public administrator, to whom the body was consigned, was also present. Dr. Zeigler, still pale and trembling, was taken to Owen's residence. A big crowd had collected by this time.

Repeated rings at the doorbell resulted in no response. Finally, Owen answered a knock at the rear door.

"Dr. Zeigler has no statement to make," he said. "He is so upset that he is unable to speak. He has been completely worn out by his long and tiresome trip, the suffering he has undergone by the death of Mrs. McKicker, and the notoriety which has so unjustly been given him. He will be here as my guest during his stay in the city, and will attend the funeral tomorrow. All that he has to say is that there will be a reckoning later on."

Gen. Kouroupatkin also reported that the greater portion of his army was at the time of filing the report, south of Yantai, ten miles northeast of Liao

Yang and a few miles from the Taitse mines, where fierce fighting had been in progress.

It is indicated that there has been a cessation of the fierce fighting. Kouropatkin reports that his men were not being much interfered with by the Japanese in the neighborhood of his army.

In St. Petersburg, the absence of news is looked upon as heightening the gravity of the situation of the Russians.

It was reported in St. Petersburg that Kouroupatkin had arrived at Tieling, which is ten miles north of Yantai and eighteen miles south of Mukden.

ACHIEVED "THE IMPOSSIBLE."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The details of the tragic struggle between Oyama's and Kouroupatkin's forces do not deter British critics from repeating the vital question, "Has Kouroupatkin made good his promise?" With all the official news before them the experts here seem inclined to believe that the Russian commander has achieved what was thought to be the "impossible," namely, headed off an envelopment.

That the Japanese, with superior numbers and the choice of time for aggression, would inflict severe losses

on the Russians, was a foregone conclusion.

JAPAN TO CONTROL AFFAIRS IN KOREA.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

TOKIO, Sept. 5.—(By Asiatic Cal-ble.) The government today published the text of an agreement signed at Seoul August 22 between representatives of Japan and Korea.

The agreement follows:

"First.—The Korean government shall engage as financial adviser to the Korean government a Japanese

subject recommended by the Japanese government, and all matters concerning financial affairs shall be dealt with after his counsel has been taken.

"Second.—The Korean government shall engage as diplomatic adviser to the Korean government a Japanese

subject recommended by the Japanese

government, and all matters concerning diplomatic affairs, such as the granting of concessions or the making of contracts with foreigners.

"Third.—The Korean government shall previously consult the Japanese government in concluding treaties and conventions with foreign powers, and in

MISS IVA MAY DIBBLE was married to Clarence W. Hall at the home of the bride's parents, No. 1214 North Main street, last Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Healy, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride was accompanied by her father, Mr. W. H. Duggett, and her mother, Mrs. Duggett. The groom was accompanied by his father, Mr. W. H. Duggett, and his mother, Mrs. Duggett. The wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, bridesmaids, and best man. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding was a simple affair, and the ceremony was performed in a quiet and intimate manner.

Miss Duggett, who is the daughter of Mr. W. H. Duggett, a well-known merchant of this city, was born in California. She is a graduate of the University of California, and is now residing in Los Angeles. Mr. Hall is a native of California, and is now residing in Los Angeles. The couple are expected to reside in Los Angeles.

AN IDLE SPECULATION.

What a happy world 'twould be—

What patience with each erring brother.

What dearth of malice, enmity.

What gentle tact with one another.

What hands outstretched, what candid eyes.

What naught but noble thoughts looked through.

What wealth of knightly courtesies—

If but the photographs were true!

These things be fleeting: foam that foams.

The crest of the on-surfing wave.

The dew the drooping flower that decks

And finds at morn a golden grave

A happy thought, a dream, a kiss.

A vow from lips too fond by half.

But never mood so fleet as this

HARD WORK NEVER KILLS

It never hurt anybody. But the thousands of tons of impure, indigestible, uncooked, unscientifically prepared foods that are consumed every year by unthinking men, women and children, while they may not kill outright, do lay the foundation for serious diseases, which render life wretched and end in premature death.

THIRTEEN PULLMANS.

Merry Lot of Carloads of Joyous Knights.

Last Evening's Grand Start for San Francisco.

Busy Women Who Helped Perspiring Men.

In thirteen Pullman coaches of different ages, the pilgrim contingent from the shrine of local paganism started for San Francisco at 6:30 o'clock last evening. Nearly four hundred of them—men and women—were in the many sleeping sections. The high officers of Los Angeles Commandery, No. 3, were in the group, a band of twenty-four instruments kept merry time to the singing, and the men were in the front of the train.

At the Los Angeles Temple, for notwithstanding the fact that "open house" was still being kept, most of the visitors and local men were making ready for the approaching crusade against the concave city of San Francisco.

FREE! Women's Garments Cut and Fitted Free, for a Few Days, Beginning Tomorrow. Any garment—evening waists, shirt waists and shirt waist suits; Eton jackets and long coats; tea gowns, dressing gowns, kimono and wrappers; by the expert New York Designers, Miller & Miller.

After considerable correspondence we induced Prof. and Mrs. Miller—who usually have engagements six months ahead—to come to California. They're here now, and their services are at the command of our customers—without charge. Miller & Miller are not only authorities on "Correct Attire," but are originators of styles; studying the individuality of each customer, and adapting the garment to her requirements.

The Proposition. The only condition necessary to benefit by above remarkable offer is that you buy material of us—from 25 cents a yard upward—and necessary trimmings, findings, etc. Understand distinctly, this does not include making—but the cutting and fitting will be done with such accuracy that you or your dressmaker will have no difficulty in completing the garment; and that with very little labor. Everything will be in readiness Tuesday morning. Fittings arranged for in rotation orders are taken; which means— "First Come First Served."

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Seat Sale.

This morning the season tickets for the Fallham course of entertainment, whose coming events have been described in the Sunday issues of The Times, will be placed on sale in room 404 Mason Opera-house building.

"Mrs. Jack."

"Mrs. Jack," a comedy by Grace Livingston Furness, will have its premier presentation in Los Angeles tonight at the Belasco Theater. Miss Adele Block will be seen in the title role.

Rabbi Edelman Explains.

Rabbi A. W. Edelman states that the announcement that he will conduct services jointly with Rabbi M. G. Solomon in Elser Hall on the Jewish New Year, is a mistake. He will not take charge of any services in the city during this period.

Mysterious Blaze.

A fire of unknown origin at 7:30 o'clock last night damaged the residence of Angelo Fluegel at No. 1639 Carlton street to the extent of $10,000. The blaze originated in the rear of the house, and spread rapidly before it was discovered. The loss is covered by insurance.

Fall from a Car.

Thomas A. Tweedy, a Florence farmer, fell from a crowded Long Beach car near West station yesterday afternoon while the car was running at a rate of about sixty miles an hour. He was bruised and cut about the face and arms, but escaped serious injury.

A Fair Day's Catch.

Magnus H. Jones and D. Hollingsworth of this city left San Pedro in an early boat yesterday morning in the launch Twinkle. When they returned about noon the fish box was filled with the bottom of the boat was paved with various varieties of the finny tribe. Among the catch were five large yellowtail, sixteen barracuda and twelve albacore.

Morocco's New Venture.

Saturday night witnessed the opening of Oliver Morosco's new Majestic Theater in San Francisco. The new Morosco stock company made its first appearance, winning, it is said, great approbation from a large audience. The offering was "In the Palace of the King," Miss Grace Reals appearing as Solomea. John Gilmore, leading actor, played opposite her. The Majestic has been entirely sold out for the coming week's performances.

Auto Smash-up.

A horse and buggy, belonging to the West Ninth Street Stables, were struck by automobile No. 757 on Main street near the Chutes last night at 9 o'clock, and the occupants of the buggy—two men—were thrown out. The horse ran away with the remnants of the vehicle, and at last accounts it was still running. Eyewitnesses say that the driver of the auto failed to stop after the accident, but continued at breakneck speed down Main street.

Returns to Salt Lake.

M. W. Gillett, general passenger and freight agent of the Salt Lake Railroad, left on the Southern Pacific at 11:20 p.m. for Salt Lake City, from which point he will make a trip East after a few days' stay. While the general offices of the Salt Lake have not been moved from Salt Lake to Los Angeles as yet, the transfer is expected to take place shortly after the opening of the road in December. Mr. Gillett at present divides his time between this and the Mormon city.

Inspects Washouts.

General Superintendent R. H. Ingram of the Southern Pacific returned yesterday from an inspection trip to the washed-out district near Beaumont. He was accompanied by his chief engineer and superintendent of maintenance-of-way. The goods piled up in big sections of the track and washed them toward the cañon, twisting and bending the steel rails into big curves. New tracks were at once laid and trains have been running smoothly over the breaks.

Promiscuous Shooting.

Life has been made miserable for residents of Melrose avenue near the end of Temple street car line by promiscuous shooting of firearms by small boys of the neighborhood. Yesterday a complaint was made to the Sheriff and Deputy Franklin arrested three youngsters named Smith, Reising and Tony. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the boys were shooting revolvers when a shot whizzed by the head of Mrs. Bashear, who was sitting on her front porch. Other residents also narrowly escaped bullets from the guns of the young rowdies.

Riot in Sonoratown.

A telephone message to the Police Station at 6:30 o'clock last evening stated that half of Sonoratown was engaged in a bloody riot at the corner of Castelar and Ord streets. The patrol wagon and several officers were sent down, and they reached the scene to place a great crowd of people stood around, but nobody seemed to know who the rioters were. Blood in pools was apparent, and the door of a house was splattered with gore. Joe Barbara, a badly battered cholo, was taken to the station on suspicion, but the instigators of the disturbance escaped.

Worked Old Game.

A sleek stranger, during the past two days, has been working an old game on several rooming-houses along Fifth street in the vicinity of the Arcade depot. He asks the landlady for the best room he can give him, and says he wants it for two persons for several weeks. He says the man who is to share the room with him will arrive that evening, is coming to establish some mercantile concern or other in this city, and will pay in advance for the entire time the room is engaged for. Meanwhile his baggage is held at the station for express charges and he needs $2 to get it out; the landlady would advance this he would leave a gold ring as security until he brings up the baggage. Needless to say, the baggage never appears and the landlady finds she has a ring worth probably two bits. At least four houses have been worked by this old trick within the past two days.

Another Big Store.

The report has been current among realty men that a big department store is to be opened up in that part of the Homer Laughlin building, which is to be vacated by the Culler Dry Goods Company, and in the new fireproof addition that is to be built on the Hill-street frontage. I cannot say that the statement is true, said Homer Laughlin, Jr., yesterday, who is managing the business in the absence of his father in Europe. "We are in consultation with two different parties, both big propositions, but as a deal has not been closed, I am not at liberty to mention names. I can say, though, that the eyes of large eastern merchants are turned toward Los Angeles, and that it is highly probable that a big concern is headed this way."

Parents at Fault.

Separation charges are to be brought by the Humane Society against the parents of Vina Masonvehl and Lillie Pierce, two young girls, both under 14 years of age, who were booked at the Police Station yesterday as "runaways." Officers have been on the look-out for them for several days. Police-men Dales picked up Vina Masonvehl on Sixteenth street yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock, and at almost the same time Officer Hoffman took charge of Lillie Pierce on Mozart street. The little girls were taken at once to the Detention Home. Later they were placed in charge of Humane Officer Webb, who is investigating their cases. It was said at the Police Station that they were clean little girls, whose home environments are such that they could hardly be blamed for running away.

Fights for a Smile.

Dick Cavallara is a messenger boy who believes in fighting for the smiles of his lady love, Miss Glennie Day of No. 12 North Figueroa street, is his ramorata, and in order to bask in the sunshine of her presence Cavallara has had numerous battles with the girls' two brothers. Several days ago the Day boys, who seem to have conceived a violent dislike for their sister's sweet heart, gave Cavallara a beating. Last night the messenger saw an opportunity for revenge when he met Lee Day, one of the brothers, on Broadway. Young Day was riding a horse and in his attempting to pull up when the enemy was encountered, the horse fell. Cavallara was on his feet in an instant, and boys and horse were soon a general mix-up. Cavallara was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace, but released on bail. He declares he will win his lady love if he is compelled to whip every male member of the Day family.

BREVITIES.

The Times' phone number has been changed from Exchange 2 to "The Times." Simply ask the operator for "The Times." No prefix or number being necessary.

Monday being Labor Day the Walker Shoe Store will be closed all day. The store will be open Tuesday morning as usual, 111 South Spring street.

MELODRAMA OF

L. K. KUSTLER.

FEARFUL TALE OF ROBBERY AND ATTEMPTED MURDER.

Redondo Visitor, Badly Done up by the Strenuous of the Town, Avers That Human Demons Plundered His Cash and Afterward Plotted to Take His Life.

A strange story of robbery was told by L. K. Kustler of Redondo, when taken to the Receiving Hospital at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning, bleeding profusely from cuts about the head and face. Kustler was found lying unconscious in a yard at the corner of College and Buena Vista streets by Officer Leeson. When his senses returned the injured man declared that he had been followed by two men who had beaten and robbed him of every cent he possessed, after which they discussed plans to murder him, so that he might not inform against them.

Lying half unconscious the man says he heard the plots for his destruction, but he was too weak to cry out for help. "I don't know why the men failed to execute their plans, the victim does not know, as he lost consciousness until the policeman aroused him. He says the robbers secured $12 in money and some jewelry.

Kustler's story is contradicted by detectives who worked on his case yesterday, as the man made conflicting statements when closely questioned. Kustler admitted that he drank and played cards in a saloon at the corner of San Fernando and Ord streets, and that he made several purchases of jewelry and watches from a peddler wearing apparel before he was robbed. He left Redondo with $15, and when found his pockets were turned inside out. He was very drunk, he thinks the man might have been "rolled" by hobo, but they take little stock in the "attempts to murder." His injuries are not serious. Kustler appears to be a seafaring man.
